NEW-YORK CITY.

THE SUNKEN PROPELLER J. N. HARRIS.

Bodies Washed Ashore at Riverhead, L. I.—The Coroner's Inquest.

It was published in Friday's Times that several bodies were reported to have been washed ashore on the beach opposite Riverhead, Long Island, supposed to be some of the passengers or crew of the propeller J. N. Harris. One of our reporters returned Saturday morning from Riverhead, where he had gone to gather further facts in the case, and attend the Coroner's Inquisition. But two bodies only, it appears, were washed ashore, and there is no positive assertion that either of these came from the sunken propeller. The following are all the facts connected with the discovery of the bodies referred to:

On Monday afternoon, while two fishermen who lived near Riverhead Beach, named DAVY TERRY and JOE. D'HERMONT, were engaged in fishing, a dead body was washed upon the beach near them. The body had no clothing upon it and it was very much decomposed, fleshing its condition and thinking it an act of justice, they at once took the body and buried it in the sand near by. The story of the discovery and burial of the corpse was mentioned to other fishermen; and the general presumption was it must have been that of some person on board the J. N. Harris who left Wm. Newton, taken to have a Coroner's Inquest held upon it. Wednesday morning, by another fisherman, named JAMES M. WELLS. Mr. WELLS communicated the fact of this second body having come ashore to Justice COOPER, of Riverhead. The Justice directed him to make the fact known to ISELAND, the Coroner of the county, who resided at Greenport. Mr. WELLS did as directed, upon which Coroner ISELAND came from Greenport to where the body was lying on the beach, and held an inquest in the same day at 5 P. M. WELLS, the fisherman, was the only witness examined. His evidence went no further than to relate the circumstance of his finding the body. The body had no head and no arms. On the left foot was a coarse blue woolen stocking and a garter red flannel band was tied around the waist. There was no other clothing, and no marks by which it was possible to identify the body. Dr. VAN SCOY, of Riverhead, who was present and assisted at the inquest, gave it as his opinion that the body was that of a young man named CHARLES BERRY, who fell overboard two weeks ago from a schooner belonging to Greenport. The size and form he thought resembled that of young BERRETT. He stated that BERRETT belonged to East Hampton.

The Jury rendered a verdict that the body was that of some person unknown to them, and that it met its death by some means unknown. The Coroner gave directions to have a coffin prepared for the body and that it should be kept unburied until some of the friends of the young man BERRETT could be sent for to view the remains. A brother of BERRETT has since looked at the body, but being unable to identify it as that of his brother it was buried yesterday.

Coroner ISELAND, from the statements made to him by the fishermen who discovered the first body relative to its condition, deemed it unnecessary to have the Jury view it. He gave orders, however, to have a coffin prepared, and that it should be properly buried. The body was stated as being entirely destitute of clothing, and so far decomposed that it was difficult to bury it.

The place where the two bodies, mentioned above, came on shore, is the same place where JAMES CROWLEY, the second mate of the ill-fated Lexington, was safely washed ashore upon a bale of cotton, after the burning of the steamer. It will be remembered that he was one of the four persons only who reached the shore alive from the Lexington. The only thing that has come ashore at Riverhead, which is presumed to have come from the J. N. Harris, is a bag of grain. From Greenport, as far up as Mattituck, a large number of boxes, barrels, crates, &c., belonging to the propeller, have been washed upon the beach.

ARREST OF AN IMPUDENT SNEAK THIEF.—JOHN WILLIAMS (alias Rawlings, a notorious colored sneak thief, about 6 o'clock on Friday evening, entered the large boarding-house, No. 49 Beach street, the front door of which had carelessly been left open, and cautiously proceeded up stairs. Stepping into the first room he came to, the thief encountered a lady, to whom he apologized for the intrusion and withdrew. He then stepped into another room, occupied by Mr. PHILETUS PHILLIPS, and opening the bureau drawers, stole therefrom coats, pants, vests, drawers, and other articles of wearing apparel, to the value of about $50, with which he left. On reaching the street with his plunder, the black rascal was discovered by Officer DAILY, of the Fifth Precinct, who promptly arrested him. The accused was locked up for examination by Justice GOSLEE.

SECOND-AVENUE RAILROAD.—On and after the 1st of September, the Second-avenue Railroad Company run their cars down the First-avenue and up the Second-avenue. This change is made at the request of many travelers, and the public generally will be better accommodated by the new route.

☞ The Union Theological Seminary begins its annual course on the 9th of September. The Seminary building and students' rooms have all been repaired throughout. The rooms have also been refurnished and re-carpeted, in part through the liberality of a few friends of the institution.

☞ It is asserted that the expenses of the Board of Almshouse Governors are about double their amount during the term of years reaching from 1849 to 1853. Whether there is a corresponding increase in the number of inmates in their institutions we do not learn.

SERIOUS RESULT OF INTEMPERANCE.—MICHAEL GAFFNEY, a Hibernian, while much under the influence of liquor, got into one of the Second-avenue cars about 10 o'clock on Friday night, but he was so disorderly and offensive that it was found necessary to eject him. This was done; but GAFFNEY, in attempting to jump on the front platform of the car again, slipped and fell before the wheel, which passed over and crushed one of his legs in a terrible manner. He was taken up and conveyed to the New-York Hospital.

Wm. Franklin, driver, and Alfred Cummins, a seaman of the gun, were arrested by Sergeant Keegan, of the Fifth Precinct, on the charge of carless driving. They were held for examination.

Body Found.

ROCKAWAY, Saturday, Aug. 29.

To the Editor of the New-York Daily Times:

The body of JAMES RILEY, of whose death by drowning I notified you yesterday, was found this morning and identified by your reporter, the accident occurred. The Inquest will be held this evening.

A REGULAR SWINDLING CONCERN.—Scarcely a day passes but that more or less unprincipled countrymen are roped into the bogus dancing office, No. 109 West-street, of the head of which, it will be in the recollection of our City readers, and most shamefully swindled by having almost worthless tickets palmed off upon them as fourteen excursion passes. No less than two complaints were made against the plundering gang this (Saturday) morning, by gentlemen from the location. Officers LEONARD and MCDONALD, of the Deputy Superintendent's office, executed the search warrant. Only a few days since the Postmaster-General of Canada was swindled in the same way to the tune of $75.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—ANN SWEENY, a little girl 4 years of age, was drowned on Friday evening in the slip foot of Gouverneur-street, E. R., on which she was walking with her mother. The body was recovered some time after and conveyed to the residence of her parents, No. 466 Cherry-street, where an inquest will be held. About 5 o'clock Friday evening BARNEY MCCANN fell from the steamboat of the ferry-boat Rising, lying at Pier No. 15, N. R., on the dark, and was drowned instantly killed. An inquest will be held on the body. The deceased was 40 years of age and a native of Ireland.

FIRE IN WOOSTER-STREET.—About 1½ o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in the brick building No. 61 Wooster-street, occupied by Messrs. KINGSTON & BURROWS. It originated in the second story from some unknown cause. The furniture and fixtures were damaged to the extent of about $600—insured for $900 in the Pacific Insurance Company. The damage done the building amounted to about $150.

☞ The pastors of several of the City churches who have been out recreating in the country, have returned to town—though the first Sabbath of September is the more general occasion for the reopening sermons. Rev. Dr. FARLEY'S Church has not been closed, as was stated, but the pulpit has been occupied weekly. The Doctor was at home and preached last Sabbath.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

The St. Nicholas Hotel Sequestration.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM.—AUG. 29.
Before Judge Peabody.

John M. Lawler vs. John P. Treadwell.—Several days ago Mr. Treadwell obtained from Judge Peabody an order of arrest against Mr. Lawler and an attachment against a portion of his property.

The present action is in the nature of replevin—to recover about $1,600 worth of personal property, consisting of wardrobe, &c., belonging to Mr. Lawler, and alleged to be illegally withheld from him by Mr. Treadwell. It appears that upon demand for the delivery up of the property, made by the Sheriff to Mr. Treadwell, the latter refused, whereupon Mr. Lawler obtained from Judge PEABODY an order of arrest against Mr. Treadwell. He also obtained an order requiring Mr. Treadwell to show cause on Tuesday next at 11 o'clock A. M. why the order of arrest against Mr. Lawler and the attachment against his property should not be set aside and vacated. About the time the replevin was served upon Mr. Treadwell, or a short time afterwards, Mr. Treadwell's counsel obtained an attachment against the very property the possession of which Mr. Lawler was seeking to recover by a writ of replevin.

The Judge granted the order of arrest against Mr. Treadwell upon the following affidavit of Mr. Lawler:

City and County of New-York, ss.—John M. Lawler, above-named, being duly sworn, says: That he was the owner, and now is, of a certain wardrobe and contents, and other articles of personal property, of the value of $1,600 or thereabouts, which were and are now in the possession of the defendant. That the summons therein was this day duly served and accompanying the same was an affidavit of the plaintiff (or same, (on the words of the Sheriff of said City and County,) commonly called a writ of replevin. That deponent had previously, and before the action was commenced, duly demanded such property of the defendants, but they refused to deliver the same to him, and still retain the same. And that the defendant, Treadwell, this day refused to deliver the same to said Sheriff, who had such requisition in the plaintiff's behalf, and that the same was issued upon the necessary affidavit and undertaking.

JOHN M. LAWLER.

Sworn Aug. 29, 1857, before me, WM. H. DURNBURY, Commissioner of Deeds.

ORDER OF ARREST.

To the Sheriff of the City and County of New-York:

You are required forthwith to arrest the defendant, John P. Treadwell, in this action, and hold him to bail in the sum of $15,000, and to return this order to Henry Sacia, Plaintiff's Attorney, at No. 120 Chambers-street, on the 2d day of September, 1857.

C. A. PEABODY, Justice of the Supreme Court.

Dated Aug. 29, 1857.

The Ohio Life and Trust Company—Application for the Appointment of a Receiver.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM, Aug. 29.

In the matter of the Ohio Life and Trust Company.—This morning an application was made for the appointment of a Receiver of the property of the Ohio Life and Trust Company. The application was made by Mr. Charles O. Nott, on behalf of John Hays and other creditors who have obtained attachments, and of the Ohio Life and Trust Company itself.

Judge PEABODY referred the matter to Wm. C. Russell, Esq.

The following is the

ORDER OF REFERENCE:

At a Special Term, &c., on the verified complaint in this action and the consent of the defendants, that a Receiver be appointed, and on hearing Charles C Nott, Esq., of counsel for the plaintiff, Ordered that it be referred to Wm. C. Russell, Esq., a counselor of this Court, to ascertain whether Wm. A. Booth and Frederick A. Lane are fit and proper persons to be appointed Receivers herein of the estate and effects of the said defendants, and the amount of security which the Receiver or Receivers to be appointed should be required to give, and to inquire into and approve or disprove the security offered both in regard of the sureties and the form of the execution of the bond. The Metropolitan Bank vs. John Thompson.—Mr. Cutting on behalf of the defendant applied for a postponement. He had just come into the case, and he had not had time to examine the papers as he would wish to.

Mr. Evarts was ready to proceed although the new affidavit had only been served this morning.

Judge DUER said that the matter had better be stopped until Monday. In the meantime he would like to have the affidavit of the clerk of the Metropolitan Bank, amended so as to make his allegations in relation to his ability to identify the bills more specific. He then ordered the case to be adjourned until Monday, at 11 o'clock A. M.

MASONIC TROUBLES.

Emile Pierre vs. Antoine Bousard.—This is an action for slander. The case is one of much interest to Freemasons, as it involves the truth of charges made by the defendant against the plaintiff, who, in consequence of such charges, it is alleged, was expelled from the Union Française, the only French Lodge of Freemasons in this City. Mr. Morange, counsel for the plaintiff, on Friday obtained an order of arrest against the defendant. The following is the plaintiff's affidavit, and upon which Judge DUER granted the order of arrest:

CITY AND COUNTY, ss. AFFIDAVIT.

City and County of New-York, ss.—Emile Pierre, the above named plaintiff, being duly sworn, says: That at the said City, in the presence and hearing of divers persons who understood and now understand the French language, the above-named defendant did, on the 16th, 18th and 20th days of August, 1857, speak, utter, publish and declare, of and concerning the said plaintiff, the following false, malicious and scandalous words in the French language, to wit: "Que M. Emile Pierre avait un filou et un voleur, et qu'il avait exigé de lui un faux mortgage," which, being translated in the English language, is of the following import, to wit: "That M. Emile Pierre (meaning plaintiff) was a pickpocket, and a thief, and that he (plaintiff meaning) had exacted from him (defendant meaning) a sham mortgage."

Deponent says that he is a shoemaker by trade, and that his trade was therefore among the French residents of the said City, but that since the speaking of the said slanders by defendant deponent has been almost wholly without work and patronage.

Deponent further says that the parties to this suit were members, and the defendant is now a member of the Masonic fraternity, and admitted to the French Lodge of said City, and that the said defendant, in the absence of the said plaintiff, at a sitting or communication of said Lodge, did speak and publish the said false and malicious slanders, and did support the same by his declared ability, whereupon the whole Lodge did expel said plaintiff, and thereupon this deponent had always been, and continued a member in good standing therein, and thereof.

Deponent further says that by the rules of the said Masonic fraternity, the expulsion aforesaid will prevent deponent from obtaining any work from the Lodge upon the floor of the Lodge, or any business connected therewith.

Deponent says that he has greatly injured by the speaking of the said slanders, and the subscription of the said defendant, and the subscription of divers persons who have heard the same, and believed the same to be true, and by reason thereof deponent has lost many customers, and has been prevented from obtaining work to the amount of $1,000 and upwards, and has been otherwise greatly injured in his character, credit and reputation.

Deponent further says that he is a married man, and has a family to support, and that he is unable to support them, and has been compelled to borrow money for the support of himself and family, and is unable to pay the same, and that he is poor and in needy circumstances, and unable to pay the costs and charges of this action.

Sworn to before me this 29th day of August, 1857.

W. H. SHADBOURNE, Com. of Deeds.

SUPREME COURT—City of New-York—Ballo Flores vs. Antonio Sanchez.—On the 29th day of August, 1857, the Sheriff of the City and County of New-York levied upon the property of the above-named defendant, and took into his possession all the property of the said defendant, consisting of a stock of Cigars, and all the fixtures and furniture in the store No. 129 Water-street, in the City of New-York, and the said property will be sold at public auction, at the store aforesaid, on the 2d day of September, 1857, at 12 o'clock noon of that day. Dated the 29th day of August, 1857.

W. H. SHADBOURNE, Com. of Deeds.

COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM.

Wm. H. Phelps vs. William S. Stone shall not be allowed to testify to the statements of said defendant, but the servants of both parties present at the time of the alleged statements may be called to testify to what was said by the defendant.

Ordered further, that the said defendant, William S. Stone, pay to the plaintiff's Attorney, at his office, No. 1 Nassau-street, New-York City, on the first day of September next, the sum of $100 DOLLARS.

COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM.

William H. Phelps vs. William S. Stone shall not be allowed to testify to the statements of said defendant, but the servants of both parties present at the time of the alleged statements may be called to testify to what was said by the defendant.

HIDES—Mr. E. D. BULL, broker, says that: "As the season is fast approaching when the tanners commence stocking in their Fall stock, we may soon expect a more active demand. The firmness manifested by importers has retarded any heavy operations, and the light stock in first hands will probably be the inducement made to come forward more freely. The views of importers are strengthened by the late advices from Europe, where Hides were gradually advancing, and there appears to be no chance for a decline in the hide producing countries. Upper Leather stock is quite scarce, with a good inquiry from Eastern manufacturers.
